

WORSHIPFUL WEDNESDAY
SPRING 2017 SCHEDULE

DATE	TRACK 1
	“GOING BACK IN TIME”—225 YEARS OF HISTORY AND FPC’S CONNECTION TO THAT. . .
Wed., April 19, 2017	Rev. Eugene Thomas . . . will address topics regarding slavery as well as civil rights in Knoxville and some of its churches.
Wed., April 26	Jack Neely . . . will “entertain” us with his explanation of church and state.
Wed., May 3	William Pender and Pat Armstrong. . . will discuss the ways FPC was used during these years for something other than just a church.
Wed., May 10	Doy Barron and Pat Armstrong . . . will bring us treasures from the archives of FPC.
Wed., May 17	Let’s all gather at the river. . . Lebanon at The Forks of the River, that is, to see the spot and hear a little bit about the history of the beginnings of FPC. We will meet at this site and enjoy a bag supper as we look back to 1791.

PLEASE JOIN US-----Don’t miss out on our Worshipful Wednesday Programs as we journey back 225 years to the inception of First Presbyterian Church and look at many dates and events in between. These will not only be historical and informative but also fun and imaginative.
